Application to register a change of name (child under 18 years)

Eligibility

- The child must be under 18 years of age.
- The child is born and/or the birth is registered in Western Australia (WA), or
- If the child was not born in WA but born overseas, they must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident and have continuously resided in WA for twelve (12) months immediately preceding the application.
- A child can only change their name once in any 12 month period unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Note: If the child was born in another State or Territory of Australia you must apply to change your child’s name in their birth State. You cannot apply to the WA Registry.

Who can apply

- Where a child is under 18 years of age and has not been married:
  - both parents may apply to change the child’s name; or
  - one parent may apply if they are the sole parent named in the child’s birth registration; or
  - one parent makes an application and the other parent is deceased. A death certificate must be provided; or
  - an order from the Family Court (9224 8222) is provided with this application; or
  - legal guardian(s) may apply if both parents are deceased (death certificates required), cannot be found or for some other reason cannot exercise their parental responsibilities (proof of guardianship must be provided – refer to Supporting documentation (g)).

Please contact the Registry on 1300 305 021 for further advice if the:
- child was born in WA, is under 12 months of age and only the given name(s) are to be changed; or
- natural parents marry after the child’s birth; or
- natural father’s details are to be included in the child’s birth registration.

Instructions for completing this application

- Print clearly with black ink only.
- Symbols and abbreviations must not be used.
- To make an alteration, cross out the mistake and initial the change.
- Do not use correction fluid or tape.
- Do not fax or email the application form.
- If any requirements are not met, the application will not be accepted.
- If you do not provide additional information requested by the Registry within 28 days, your application will be cancelled and a refund of any payment will be posted separately.

Additional information

Notification

If the change of name application is successful:

- Any person whose birth is registered in WA will have the new name noted at the bottom of their birth certificate. That notation will appear on all birth certificates issued after the change of name is registered. The original birth name will still be recorded on the birth certificate. A birth certificate including the change of name notation is available on payment of an additional fee. Refer to Part 8 for fees.
- Name changes may be notified to other organisations, for example the Police Department, Passport Office, Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) and Department of Transport.

Can my change of name be refused? The Registrar may refuse the application if:

a. if you are unable to produce the required proof of identity documents; or
b. you have failed to advise of previous changes of name for the child in WA or other State/Territories; or
c. the child is ineligible, or the new name is considered to be a prohibited name i.e. obscene or offensive, too long, includes symbols without phonetic significance, or is considered to be against the public interest; or
d. there is reason to believe that the application has been made for fraudulent or improper purposes.

You will be notified in writing if your application is unsuccessful.
